Prof. Douglas William Elmendorf
Dean, Harvard Kennedy School
Boston, Unites States of America

Dear Prof. Elmendorf,

I learned with deep sadness of the passing away of Prof. Calestous Juma, one of the world's great minds and renowned thinkers.

I would like to express my heartfelt condolences to you and the Faculty of Harvard Kennedy School on the loss of Prof. Juma, a man who was globally respected for his interest in harassing science, technology and environment for alleviation of poverty and development.

Through you, I would also like to convey my sincere condolences to his bereaved family and pray to the Almighty God to grant them the fortitude to bear his irreparable loss.

While we will greatly miss Prof. Juma, I would like to assure you of the IsDB's commitment to continue the cooperation with Kennedy School in all areas discussed with the late Prof. Juma in particular Executive Education Programme and promoting the role of scientific and technological innovation in economic development. In this regard, our focal point will be Dr. Abdulhakim Elwaer (email: AEIwaer@isdb.org office: +966 12 646 6420/6496 mobile: 966 5357 13498).

May I pray to the Almighty God to rest Prof. Juma's soul in eternal peace.

Yours sincerely,

Dr Bandar Bin Mohamed Hamza Hajjar
